Rob and Steve Allen ventured to Alaska recently. Among the catches were various trout species, Artic Grayling and some fine King Salmon. Pictured below Steve and guide with a prime example.

No catch and release for these two anglers. Pictured below Steve and Rob with a brace of Silvers. (looks like a cosy place).

Ray Throup spent three nights at Mallacoota. Some early mornings produced some good action on surface poppers. The picture below was taken in the Betka river.
