General Business:

Trip to Tamboon in May discussed and will be on Friday 15th May until 18th May, Ray Throup to confirm and book accommodation. 8-9 members indicating that they would be attending.

Dean notified that the cost of the Insurance premium has gone up, and is now approximately $25 per member, and suggested that we may need to discuss raising our subscription fee at our next AGM in November.

Ray Throup informed us about the ATF removal of Trout from Loombah Weir to establish a site for the Macquarie Pearch Project, this will provide a fishing opportunity for ATF members to fish for Trout at a location where previously fishing activity was not permitted. Read more about this in the email that Neil sent out on 3/4/2026

Licola club trip in September. To be worked out later in year.
