Business arising from previous minutes:

Stronger Fishing Clubs Grants, Ray has applied for a grant to upgrade the website by fixing the picture gallery and moving it to another hosting provider, we need to wait and see if our grant application was success full.
Due to recent rains and the rivers up and dirty the Marlo Club trip has been called off for now.

Bendigo Bank A/c balance. $2,791.47
Moved by: Dean Cousin & Seconded by Tony Wallace

General Business:

Tree Planting at Jubilee Bridge.
Neil and Dean would be attending

Jack Groenewald Suggested that it would be better if our meetings started a 7:00 pm in stead of 7:30 pm as they do now. As there were a few members who were not in attendance for this meeting, we thought that we would put it to a vote during the September meeting.

If you are not able to attend the September meeting and you would like to have your say, please email me and let me know if you would like to keep it the same Starting at 7:30 pm, or you would like to change the meeting starting time to 7:00 pm.

Fishing reports:

Brian Menheree Fished Mill Brook Lakes, the weather was a bit rough and fishing was tough, He managed to land a few fish the best was 4lbs, 2 Rainbow Trout, a Tiger Trout and 3 smaller rainbows.
